Connections that Count

Dear NMSDC Constituents:

It gives me great pleasure to announce the appointment of Adrienne Trimble as the new President and CEO of the National Minority Supplier Development Council, effective Aug. 1.

With an impressive HR and Supplier Diversity background, Adrienne brings the necessary expertise to build a strong and sustainable team around our strategic goals.

In her new role, Adrienne will drive all aspects of the organization's work, including revamping processes, designing new programming, providing operational oversight, selecting and leading a strong national staff, and working with the Board and affiliates to implement strategy. I look forward to working alongside Adrienne to achieve our mission.

At the same time, I would like to thank Louis Green for his help and sacrifice as NMSDC's interim leader. He remains onboard through October and will help Adrienne properly transition to her new role. We thank him for his contributions and tireless commitment.

I believe in the NMSDC network and am confident that our deliberate and intentional efforts will deliver solid outcomes for our stakeholders. Thank you for your continued support and engagement.

Sincerely,

Joe Hinrichs
